5. STATEMENT OF CLAIM

Please note that it is not enough to just list the ground(s) for your action. You must include a statement of the facts which you believe support each of your claims. In other words, just tell the story of what happened and do not use legal jargon.

Fed.R.Civ.P. 8(a) states that a pleading must contain "a short and plain statement of the claim showing that the pleader is entitled to relief." "The function of pleadings under the Federal Rules is to give fair notice of the claim asserted. Fair notice is that which will enable the adverse party to answer and prepare for trial, allow the application of res judicata, and identify the nature of the case so it may be assigned the proper form of trial." Simmons v. Abruzzo, 49 F.3d 83, 86 (2d Cir. 1995).

Fed.R.Civ.P. 10(b) states that "[a]ll averments of claim ... shall be made in numbered paragraphs, the contents of each of which shall be limited as far as practicable to a single set of circumstances."

ATTACHED SHEET ONE

1. By misbehavior report dated January 7, 2019, written by Corrections Officers A. Ripley and K. Ramirez of Elmira Correctional Facility (C.F.) I was charged with violating prison disciplinary rules 113.10 (possession of a weapon), 113.11 (possession of an altered item), and 113.19 (possession of excessive tobacco).

2. On January 8, 2019, my property was searched further by Correction Officer (C.O.) M. Naida of Elmira C.F. and I was issued a misbehavior report dated January 9, 2019, charging me with violating disciplinary rule 113.25 (drug possession).

3. I was not allowed to be present and watch the searches of my property on either occasion on January 7, and 8, 2019, and no security reason existed for the violation of clearly established law that required that I be present during the cell and property searches.

4. I pled NOT GUILTY to all charges and a combined disciplinary hearing (Tier III) was held on both misbehavior reports commencing on January 16, 2019, and completed on February 28, 2019, before Hearing Officer LT. SCHADEWALD of Elmira C.F..

5. Hearing Officer LT. SCHADEWALD found me guilty of all four charges and imposed sentence at 365 days SHU (Special Housing Unit) confinement, as well as 312 days loss of packages, commissary, and telephone privileges. I was also sentenced to 60 days loss of visitation.

6. I took an administrative appeal to Commissioner ANTHONY J. ANNUCCI of DOCCS (Department of Corrections & Community Supervision) which was denied. I brought to the attention of Hearing Officer LT. SCHADEWALD during my Tier III disciplinary hearing that my cell and property were improperly searched in my absence and that the Tier III guilt determination should be annulled and expunged, all to no avail.

7. I commenced a New York CPLR Article 78 (CPLR Article 78) proceeding during which the Appellate Division, Third Department, found that "with respect to the charges of possession of a weapon and possession of an altered item, the Attorney General Concedes, and we agree, that the findings of guilt as to those charges should be annulled and all references thereto expunged from petitioner's institutional records on the ground that petitioner was not present during all of the search before the weapon was (allegedly) found". See Matter of Sylvester v Annucci, 186 AD3d 1857 (3d Dept. 2020). The remaining charges of possession of excessive tobacco and drug possession were confirmed.

8. On November 12, 2020, my disciplinary determination was further modified to dismiss the drug charge "in the interest of fairness" due to an inconsistency in the manufacturer's instructions pertaining to the testing kit.

9. During my disciplinary SHU confinement I was subjected to conditions of confinement such as: being required to spend approx. 23 hours in a cell daily with no access to commissary to buy food, cleaning materials to maintain clean cell and personal hygiene; being handcuffed when allowed to walk down a gallery for a shower which occurred only 3 times per week; not provided with any meaningful recreational activity in that only 1 hour per day of out of cell activity was permitted as part of SHU confinement; loss of 60 days of family/friends visitation; infrequent linen changes of only 1 linen change per week; infrequent cell cleaning with only 2 times per week of cell cleaning; little or no access to in cell reading materials being allowed reading materials only 1 time per week; being fed food through a cell door opening inside a unhygienic cell with foods being served in lesser amounts than those served to general population inmates; being denied almost all contact with humans.

10. I sustained severe psychological harm, humiliation and other deprivations that constitute "atypical hardship" singly and or combined.

11. The Corrections Officials and defendants C.O.s A. RIPLEY, K. RAMIREZ, M. NAIDA, LT. SCHEDEWALD, ANTHONY ANNUCCI were all fully aware that I am an AFRICAN-AMERICAN & FORMER POLICE OFFICER.

12. The Defendants sought to and did deprive me of equal protection of the laws and subjected me to atypical hardship by causing and condoning my SHU confinement.

13. The Defendants actions were based on discriminatory, class-based, and or racial animus.

14. Defendants' acts are actionable under 42 U.S.C. §§ 1985(3), 1983, 1981(a) and under New York State law. See Brown v State of New York, 89 NY2d 172, 652 NYS2d 223 (1996) (holding that New York State Constitution and Section 874A of the Restatement (Second) of Torts provide basis for a court to imply a civil remedy from legislation or constitutional provisions); see also Haywood v Drown, 556 US ____, No. 07-10374 (New York Statute found "contrary to Congress' judgment that all persons who violate federal rights while acting under color of state law shall be held liable for damages")

15. Federal courts also have pendent jurisdiction to decide federal constitutional and state law claims arising out of the same nucleus of facts as here. See Mine Workers v Gibbs, 383 US 715, 726 727 (1966)

16. Prison inmates are entitled to "certain procedural protections when disciplinary actions subject them to further liberty deprivations such as loss of good time credit or special confinement that impose an atypical hardship." Sira v Morton, 380 F.3d 57, 69 (2d Cir.2005)

17. A liberty interest may arise from the Constitution itself... or it may arise from an expectation or interest created by state laws or policies. Wilkinson v Austin, 545 US 209, 221 (2005)

ATTCHED SHEET THREE

18. Plaintiff here asserts that he has a liberty interest based on the Constitution itself and based on an expectation or interest created by state laws or policies.

19. The failure to allow plaintiff to observe his cell/property search was a violation of New York State's DOCCS Directive 4910 and required annulment and expungement of the disciplinary determination. See Matter of Sylverter v Annucci, supra, 186 AD3d 1857 (3d Dept.2020); Matter of Holloway v Lacey, 263 AD2d 765 (3d Dept.2001. And, a period of confinement between "0101 and 305 days is considered to be an 'intermediated duration and could implicate a liberty interest should a detailed record of the conditions of confinement indicate that it was an atypical and significant hardship' See Sealey v Giltner, 197 F.3d 578,589 (2d Cir.1999); Welch v Bartlett, 196 F.3d 389, 394 (2d Cir. 1999).

20. My SHU confinement was 365 days SHU, 312 loss of packages, commissary, telephone privileges, 60 days loss of visitation. The combined effect of the punishment and conditions of confinement resulted in an atypical and significant harsship.

21. In Welch v Bartlett, supra, 196 F.3d 389,394 n. 4 (2d Cir.1999) the Second Circuit made clear that "Hewitt (v Helms, 459 US 460 (1983)) as modified by Sandin's additional requirement of an 'atypical and significant hardship', remains good law in analyzing whether statutory or regulatory tests can generate a liberty interest"
